Okay so this is a simple fix. You just need to sign the Ts and C's, you should have been sent this upon point of sale. When you logged into Circle there should have seen a pop up saying that if you don't see anything you need to sign the Ts and Cs. Please let me know if nothing happens after you've signed them but it should resolve that for you.

I just came in to see where you were up to. Originally you put the wrong email address in which is what has caused the issue.

You should have the start here/unlock access section now, if you click through that it will open up the other modules
