

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- Welcome to the world of sales
- As a fitness coach part of signing new clients is going to be getting good at selling yourself and selling your services
- This can be a scary step for some people, but we have developed a 4 step process to make the sale as easy and streamlined as possible

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- All sales is is an exchange in value between two parties
- In this case it's your knowledge and skillset in exchange for income
- Remind yourself that its not wrong to ask for the sale when you are making a fair exchange for something your potential client deems valuable

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- The good news is you don't have to be good at sales to learn and implement this system
- The system does most of the selling for you, all you have to do is follow the process
- However, there will be a learning curve as with any skill. The more reps you take the quicker and better you will get

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- Remember that sales is a skill
- A highly lucrative skill that will pay you again and again for eternity
- A skill that you can improve and get better at every day
- If you get good at sales by practicing, you will be able to make money anywhere at anytime and help change the lives of your clients

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- The important thing to note about this sales process is you are only selling to people who have expressed interest in your offer and program
- You are not pushing anything people don't want onto them
- This allows you to sell genuinely to people who are looking for the help

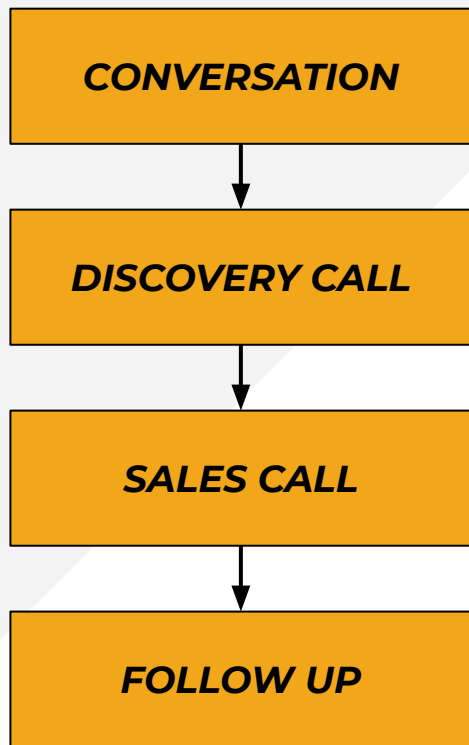

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- Just like with outreach, sales is an obligation to your business and success
- For this process the discovery call is going to be a phone call and the sales call will be a zoom call
- Sales is 5% language, 20% tonality, and 75% body language
- It's very important for your prospect to see you and vice versa

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- What we are going to do in over the next module is teach you how to implement the 4 step sales process in your business so you can become a sales pro

SALES MODEL

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- Conversation: First step in the sales process, serves as point of contact with potential client
- Discovery Call: Quick 10 minute call to qualify potential client and bridge between conversation and sales call
- Sales Call: 20-30 minute presentation to sign client into coaching program
- Follow-Up Call: if needed a call to bring on new clients on the backend of the sales call

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- In the last module we taught you how to generate your lead, start the conversation, and book them for a discovery call
- Now we're going to teach you how to conduct the discovery call, bridge the gap to the sales call, how to conduct the sales call, and how to conduct a follow up call

4-STEP SALES PROCESS

- By the end of this module you will be ready to start signing clients
