Subject: Waiver of Solicitation Acknowledgment

Dear [Customer's Full Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. We appreciate your business and value the trust you have placed in [Your Company Name]. In order to maintain transparency and ensure a clear understanding between both parties, we request your acknowledgement of the following statement:

I, [Customer's Full Name], hereby acknowledge that I was not directly or indirectly solicited by [Your Company Name] to engage in any business transactions. I have chosen to work with [Your Company Name] on my own accord, without any external influence or solicitation, be it direct or indirect.

I confirm that the decision to engage [Your Company Name] was made independently, and I entered into a business relationship with [Your Company Name] willingly and without any form of inducement.

This waiver serves as an affirmation that my engagement with [Your Company Name] is a result of my own choice and not influenced by any external pressures or solicitations.

I further acknowledge that [Your Company Name] has provided me with the necessary information, products, or services in a transparent manner, allowing me to make an informed decision based on my needs and preferences.

By signing below, I confirm my understanding and agreement with the above statements:
